FIRST RESOURCE BANK GIVES AWAY MORE THAN TOASTERS

New community bank in Chester County will hand out $100 per business day through grand opening

EXTON, PA - First Resource Bank announced today that they are giving away $100 per business day through a raffle being held until May 21, 2005. Customers can enter their names in the raffle when they visit the branch. Names will be randomly selected at the end of each business day.*

"We are pleased to offer the opportunity of winning $100 to the residents and the business community of Chester County." said Glenn Marshall, President and Chief Executive Officer of First Resource Bank. "We're not like every other bank and we wanted our grand opening to be different than the typical bank. Why give away toasters when you can give away cash?"

and business financial goals. The Bank's initial branch and corporate headquarters is a full-service banking facility at the corner of Route 100 and Marchwood Road, in Exton, PA.

Before joining First Resource Bank in September 2004, Mr. Marshall served as Executive Vice President and Chief Lending Officer at Stonebridge Bank in Exton, PA. He is currently a member the West Whiteland Township Pension Board, a member of the West Whiteland Township Audit Committee, and Member of the Radnor Hunt Club Foundation Board.

* No purchase, payment or account opening of any kind is necessary to enter or win. Winners will be randomly selected at the end of our business day. Must be 18 years of age to enter. Odds of winning depend on the number of eligible entries received. For official rules, visit www.firstresourcebank.com."
