FIRST RESOURCE BANK NAMED BEST BANK IN CHESTER COUNTY FOR THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR

EXTON, PA –First Resource Bank (OTCQX: FRSB), announced that it has been named Best Bank in Chester County for the third consecutive year by readers of the Daily Local News. Still reeling in excitement from having been the only bank in the Philadelphia region to be awarded 2019 Best Places to Work from the Philadelphia Business Journal, First Resource Bank was thrilled and humbled to receive this latest distinction.

“As a small community bank among Chester County’s numerous banking options, we are truly honored and grateful to our customers and community for voting us the Best Bank in Chester County,” commented President and CEO, Glenn Marshall. “It’s not enough to outperform our peers. We’ve always got to be on our A-game in delivering exceptional customer service and quality financial products as we know that every day our customers have a choice on where to bank. We want to make that choice easy.”

First Resource Bank has been serving the Chester County community for nearly 15 years and specializes in helping small businesses and retail customers with their banking needs. The Bank’s unique approach in encouraging branch staff to make qualified referrals for business customers along with their Free Schedule, which identifies a list of services that they offer at no cost, set them apart from the competition.

“I’m proud to lead a team that appreciates the importance of putting customer satisfaction at the threshold of everything we do and is motivated to continue delivering the best,” said Marshall.
